

9 Platt Street, Euroa

A Family's Haven in the Heart of Euroa

Perfectly positioned within walking distance of Euroa Primary School, St John's Primary School and the Secondary College, this delightful family home blends comfort, convenience, and a relaxed country lifestyle.

Euroa is an ideal place to raise a family, offering excellent sporting facilities, a vibrant shopping centre, inviting cafés, and a warm community spirit. If you've been dreaming of a tree change and a slower pace of life, this property—set on approximately 855m²—could be the one for you.

Inside, the home offers four generous bedrooms, with the master suite including an ensuite and lots of storage. The central bathroom features both a bath and shower, positioned for easy access by the whole household. Two spacious living areas provide flexibility for family life and entertaining, while the functional kitchen includes a gas stove, ample cupboard space, and an outlook over the family room. A separate laundry adds extra practicality, while evaporative cooling and gas heating ensure year-round comfort.

Outdoors, a private patio creates the perfect place to enjoy the fresh country air. The property also features a double carport, rear yard access, and two garden sheds, while the established gardens provide shade, privacy, and a lovely natural backdrop.

This home truly offers the space, practicality, and lifestyle families are searching for.
